

WASHINGTON STATE APPRENTICESHIP AND TRAINING COUNCIL

Chapter 49.04 RCW and Chapter 296-05 WAC

Apprenticeship Geographical Expansion Checklist

	Yes / No
Program is currently in compliance with most recent compliance review.
Program will deliver Related Supplemental Instruction (RSI) in the local area or make reasonable accommodations for the apprentices. For example, the 40-hour in residence school.
The apprenticeship agreement must demonstrate the program sponsor's need for apprentices. The following are some examples of ways the program sponsor can demonstrate the need for apprentices exists:
Statistical analysis of workload projections
Demographics
Information relating to expected workload growth
Other information
Program's request for expansion has objections from competitors.
Department recommendation
Comments:	