

WASHINGTON STATE APPRENTICESHIP AND TRAINING COUNCIL

ADMINISTRATIVE POLICY

TITLE: Temporary Variance to Certify Electrical Trainees

NUMBER: 2014-01

ISSUED: 01/16/2014

CHAPTER: Chapter 296.05 WAC

ADMINISTRATIVE POLICY DISCLAIMER

This policy is designed to provide general information in regard to the current position of the Department of Labor & Industries on the subject matter covered. This policy is intended as a guide in the interpretation and application of the relevant statutes, regulations, and policies, and may not be applicable to all situations. This policy does not replace applicable RCW or WAC standards. If additional clarification is required, the Program Manager for Apprenticeship should be consulted.

This document is effective as of the date of print and supersedes all previous interpretations and guidelines. Changes may occur after the date of print due to subsequent legislation, administrative rule, or judicial proceedings. The user is encouraged to notify the Program Manager to provide or receive updated information. This document will remain in effect until rescinded, modified, or withdrawn by the Washington State Apprenticeship and Training Council.

Effective January 16, 2014:

A temporary variance is granted to WAC 296-05-303(5)(f) allowing 01 and 06 licensed companies to certify for electrical trainees while also employing Registered Apprentices. This variance shall expire December 31st, 2016.

The purpose is to allow individuals working for 01 and 06 contractors, who will receive credit for previous unsupervised telecommunication work under 2014 legislation, a limited time to obtain their 06 license without having to join an apprenticeship program.

This variance does not allow the trainee to work unsupervised. It simply allows an 01 or 06 contractor who is a Training Agent with an approved Apprenticeship Program to also certify supervised 06 trainee hours until 12/31/16.

WAC 296-05-303(5)(f):

Require all employers requesting "approved training agent" status to comply with a WSATC approved agreement and all federal and state apprenticeship rules and the appropriate apprenticeship standards. (The training agent shall employ only registered apprentices when training for a given occupation);
