REPORTS:

Department of Enterprise Services, State of Washington

A written report was provided and distributed.

Employment Security Department

A written report was provided and distributed.

Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction

Dennis Wallace stated he has been working closely with the CTE Showcase project and how the students are really taking this project to heart. Dennis said the kids are aware of apprenticeship programs and how to get into them at a much earlier age, business owners are defining what they want, and he's working on career paths for kids right out of high school.

Oregon State Apprenticeship and Training Council

No representative in attendance to give a report.

State Board for Community and Technical Colleges

Danny Marshall, representing Marty Brown, provided a written report. He stated there was a 31% increase over the previous summer along with a continuous 13-quarter increase in apprenticeship enrollment. Danny spoke about the upcoming youth apprenticeship programs. There was a discussion between the WSATC members and Danny regarding data.

US DOL Office of Apprenticeship

Doug Howell, Multi-State Navigator for Region 6 talked about the success of National Apprenticeship Week 2016. Doug reported on the one circular and nine bulletins DOL produced. He also spoke about the recently released Federal Regulations for 29 CFR 30 Final Rule.

Washington State Apprenticeship Coordinators' Association

Mark Beaufait stated the Eastern Washington programs are happy with the candidates that are coming out of the pre-apprenticeship programs in Eastern Washington. Mark said that the contact for recruiting veterans is Rachel Roberts of the Washington State Department of Veteran's Affairs. The Department is rolling out the new boilerplate. He talked about the RAISE grant the Department had received that has a component called a Systems Integration Team (SIT Team) that Shana Peschek will be reporting about.

Washington State Department of Transportation

A written report was provided and distributed.

Washington Student Achievement Council

Laura Bach said they were trying to get the word out to veterans and other eligible persons who may receive a monthly stipend while training in an approved Apprenticeship program. In addition to post-9/11 GI Bill participants, all receive $83 monthly for books and supplies. She encouraged the apprenticeship programs who weren't participating to participate.

Workforce Training and Education Coordinating Board

Provided the opening greeting.

Secretary, Washington State Apprenticeship and Training Council

Jody Robbins said there were no new Training Agent Compliance cases to report. Patrick is having great success with voluntary compliance on the local level. The Department has received the Council's final order on Case #2016-06 upholding the Department's determination in the cancellation of apprentice Marvin Moses. He introduced the new staff; Andrea Anderson, AhShalla Harris and Rachel McAloon. The Governor's Office is dedicating discretionary moneys for the Department to hire a Youth Apprenticeship Consultant. The AUR taskforce has met several times and will meet again in the spring.

WSATC Electrical Subcommittee

Todd Turner and Steve Harper asked the Council to approve the Residential and Limited Energy Guideline Standards presented to them with amended, non-material changes and have the Department implement across all affected programs as soon as administratively possible. Patrick Martin, Department of Labor & Industries distributed copies of the final drafts showing the non-material changes. M/S/C

The subcommittee also asked the Council to approve the Variance to Certify Electrical Trainees Policy #2017-01 as presented, which sunsets on December 31, 2017. M/S/C

They also asked the Council to maintain the subcommittee to develop policy and/or rule proposals which may help solve the certified/uncertified labor issues at hand. The Council agreed and asked the Department to get the word out to the stakeholders so they know what's being discussed and can participate.
