Scott Middleton (Mechanical Contractors Association of Western Washington)

State money – residential or commercial and rates – what does L&I do to police how projects are designated?

Sean Anderson (L&I)

We ask standard questions from intents & affidavits

Ramona Christensen-Russell (L&I)

RCW 39.12.030

Need to know funding source – not all public money triggers prevailing wage

Travel Time for Public Works Projects Update – Next Steps

Reasa Pearson (L&I)

- Public comments closed April 19, 2024
- Evaluating comments
- Will schedule meeting with PWAC to discuss comments and current draft

Housekeeping Rulemaking

Reasa Pearson (L&I)

- Filed CR105
- Getting ready to file 103
 - Received an objection to expedited rulemaking – will file 102 to be ready by August, 2024

SB 2136 Summary:

Reasa Pearson (L&I)

- In the process of implementation; gathering requirements for the IT piece
- Rulemaking will begin the end of this year so we're prepared if we have to go to 102

- Rule update – WAC 296.127.020
- Working on investigative police update

Program Stats:

Ashley Warren (L&I) & Chuck Ziegert (L&I)

- Slowdown due to holiday and staff turnover

Josh Swanson (IUOE Local 302)

Large volume of citations issued for failure to file certified payroll

Chuck Ziegert (L&I)

Focused enforcement of certified payroll – is valuable and works, we don't have the capacity at this time. In the interim, continue to file complaints.

Roundtable:

Bruce Chattin (Washington Aggregates & Concrete Association)

Jody's replacement?

Celeste Monahan (L&I)

- Recruitment reposted with adjustments
- Going through applications

Wrap-up and Next Meetings:

- Continued work on Travel Time Policy
- Next meetings:
 - August 13, 2024
 - November 21, 2024

Adjourn:

Cathy Kuffner (L&I)
