Reason(s):

Department Request

The Department has conducted the following activities in accessing the viability of this Program:

1. The Department has visited Western Masonry Office located at 16315 Smokey Point Blvd, #A, Marysville numerous times since 2017. I left a business card with the person present each time. With each visit a meeting or further contact had been requested. No contact has been received after these visits.
2. The Department sent a letter via USPS (Certified Mail) to the current office address. Letter was sent on 11/18/2020. Letter was received at the current office address on 11/23/2020. No contact has been received after receipt of this letter.
3. The Department sent a letter via USPS (Certified Mail) to the current office address. Letter was sent on 12/1/2020. Letter was received at the current office address on 12/8/2020. No contact has been received after receipt of this letter.
4. The Department received an email from Western Masonry on 12/4/2020. The email was replied to on 12/7/2020. In the email the Program asked to remain on "inactive" status. The reply informed the Program that continuance on "inactive" status was not an option. Reactivation of the Program was offered along with assistance from the Department in accomplishing this.
5. The Department sent a letter via USPS (Certified Mail) to the current office address. Letter was sent on 1/8/2021. Letter was received at the current office address at 1/26/2021. No contact has been received after receipt of this letter.
6. Program currently has no apprentices. The last registered apprentice to the Program was cancelled on 9/29/2016.
7. The Program was placed into "inactive" status on 9/29/2016.

The supporting documentation of the above #2, #3, #4, #5, #6, & #7 are attached with this request submission

James Frisch, Secretary
Western Masonry Apprenticeship Committee
16315 Smokey Point Blvd #A
Marysville, Washington 98271

The Department received your memo dated September 29, 2016 requesting Western Masonry Apprenticeship Committee #1802 program be placed in "inactive" status, thus exempt from the reporting requirements in your standards of apprenticeship.

Your request is granted effective September 29, 2016. When your program decides to register apprentices again, please inform your assigned L&I Apprenticeship Consultant and resume submitting reports to include an annual journey level wage declaration, related supplemental instruction hours, and on-the-job training hours as required.

If you have any questions or need assistance, please contact your Labor and Industries Apprenticeship Consultant, Karla Tuttle, (360) 416-3081, email TUTK235@lni.wa.gov.

Thank you for your continued support of apprenticeship.

Sincerely,

Jody Robbins
Program Manager

Western Masonry Apprenticeship
Attention: James Frisch
16315 Smokey Point Blvd #A
Marysville, WA. 98271

Dear Mr. Frisch:

This letter is in regards to the Western Masonry Apprenticeship program as approved by the Washington State Apprenticeship & Training Council on April 21, 2006. When this Apprenticeship Program was approved, it was to train apprentices in the occupation of Bricklayer. The last apprentice registered to this program was cancelled September 29, 2016. This Program was placed into "inactive" status on September 29, 2016.

According to the Code Of Federal Regulations (CFR) 29.6a:

(a) Every registered apprenticeship program must have at least one registered apprentice, except for the following specified periods of time, which may not exceed 1 year:

(1) Between the date when a program is registered and the date of registration for its first apprentice(s); or

(2) Between the date that a program graduates an apprentice and the date of registration for the next apprentice(s) in the program.

If you require assistance in registering apprentices in this approved occupation, I am available to assist you. If you no longer wish to be listed as an approved apprenticeship program with L & I, I have included a Request for Cancellation of Program form. This pre-completed form only requires your signature and date at the bottom of the form.

If you require assistance or have any questions, I may be reached at 360-701-7140 or by email at Gary.Peterson@lni.wa.gov.

Sincerely,

When this Apprenticeship Program was approved, it was to train apprentices in the occupation of Bricklayer. The last apprentice registered to this program was cancelled September 29, 2016. This Program was placed into "inactive" status on September 29, 2016.

The Department sent a registered letter to you on November 18, 2020 in regards to your continued recognition as a Washington State approved apprenticeship program. The letter was received on November 23, 2020. Another letter was sent on December 1, 2020. This letter was received on December 8, 2020. The Department has received an email on 12/4/2020 from you asking to remain on inactive status. This email was replied to on 12/7/2020. The reply explained that remaining inactive was not an option. The process to reactivate was also explained in this reply email. The Department has not received any further correspondence from you since 12/4/2020.

I am going to recommend cancellation of the Western Masonry Apprenticeship due to inactivity if I do not hear from you February 14, 2021. If you require assistance in updating the program and registering apprentices in this approved occupation, I am available to assist you.

If you require assistance or have any questions, I may be reached at 360-701-7140 or by email at Gary.Peterson@lni.wa.gov.
